Lace Curtain, Upholstery and Portiere Remnants and Odds and Ends in a Sale.

A choice collection of bargains for those who are shrewd enough to look to the needs of the future. Remnants from this stock are remnants that are worthy of the attention of every buyer. Nothing finer is sold than we sell, and when such goods are put into bargain lots at any such prices as this sale makes it's an opportunity that combines a chance for good buying in both senses.

The parlor was prettily decked in red roses and green was prettry decked in red loses and green vines, and the dining room in pink and white blossoms. Mrs. Gridley was assisted by Mrs. F. M. Rohrer, Mrs. H. L. Hall, Mrs. D. S. Childs, Mrs. William Crabbe, Miss Childs, Miss Edwards, Miss Guitner, Miss Linkins and Miss Millard. Mrs. A. E. Gridley, mother of the host and of the late amented Capt. Gridley, was also present. Dr. and Mrs. Henry Hayes have left the Princeton, and will be with Col. and Mrs. J. Edward Clarke for the rest of the winter. Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Hayes will be at home Fridays in February.

CLEAR OF MURDER CASES. Twenty-Sixth Case Disposed of by Judge Clabaugh. For the first time in several years the free of charges of murder. Since Justice Clabaugh was appointed to the bench of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, less than two years ago, he has been almost constantly engaged in presiding at murder trials in Criminal Court No. 1. The service of Justice Clabaugh in that court will terminate with the close of business today. He goes to Circuit Court No. 1 Monday morning, succeeding Justice week at the home of Miss Ethel Price, 527 Harrison street, Anacostia, D. C. Among those present were Misses Frances Miller,

I Monday morning, succeeding Justice
Bradley, who transfers to Equity Court
No. 2. Justice Barnard leaves Equity
Court No. 2 and takes the seat in Criminal Court No. 1 vacated by Justice Clabaugh.

Justice Clabaugh has officiated at twenty-six murder trials during the period mentioned.

Since the appointment of United States Attorney Anderson, some time after Justice Clabaugh took charge, twenty-two charges of murder have been disposed of. The last trial for a capital crime that occurred was that of Ernest Rodgers, colored, who stabbed and killed Frank Hook, also colored, the 24th of December, 1900. Rodgers was indicted, tried and landed in the penitentiary within one month of the time of the commission of the crime. He was declared "guilty, without capital pun-

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS. Their Fair Will Begin Next Monday

Evening. The Knights of Columbus' fair will open Monday, February 4, in Washington Light Infantry Armory, to continue for two weeks. It will be opened by Rt. Rev. Archbishop Martinelli and an address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. D. J. Stafford. The fair is given for the benefit of the building fund for the erection of a temple in the District of Columbia.

The fair room as decorated will represent a city in Barcelona, Spain. Either side of the hall will exhibit the stores or shops characteristic of the ancient city, which stores compose the respective tables of the five councils of the Knights of Columbus. At the head of the street (near the entrance) will be a flower booth, and the op-posite end of the street will exhibit a garden, where refreshments will be served. The two rooms at the lower end of the hall will contain, respectively, a shooting gallery and a biograph. From 12 to 2 o'clock p.m. each day lunch will be served. Entertainments have been provided for each evening, consisting of musical and liter-ary numbers and vaudeville shows, and the evening will be brought to a close by dancing, music for which has been carefully selected and will be rendered by the very best talent in the city.

The novelties in the way of prizes, etc., are very valuable and in many instances unusual. MEXICO EXTOLLED.

Lecture by Senor Don Juan Navarro Before Geographic Society.

Senor Don Juan Navarro, consul general of Mexico at New York, delivered an address on the progress made by Mexico during the last forty years before the National Geographic Society last evening at the First Congregational Church. The speaker was greeted by a fine audience and was attentively listened to for almost an hour and three-quarters. The lecture consisted of a recital of the many advantages possessed by his country.

Senor Navarro paid a glowing tribute to Mexico and its people. According to the speaker, the country is a veritable paradise, and the people are most courteous and hos-pitable. The constitution of Mexico was, he said, modeled to a certain extent on that of the United States, but in many instances was vastly improved. Bribery and corrup-tion at elections, he declared, were unheard-of things, and the reason why President Diaz is re-elected regularly at the end of his term of four years is because he is so competent that the people do not want to displace him.
